This thoughtfully designed home offers a contemporary style that stands apart from the ordinary and is well suited for everyday living and entertaining. Natural light fills each room, enhancing the open, airy feel throughout. The vaulted living room and master bedroom create a sense of volume and comfort, while the lofted reading room/home office provides an ideal extra space with lots of windows and beautiful views. Large upstairs bedroom could serve as second master, playroom, or even extra living area. Indoor and outdoor living come together through a folding glass wall that opens the dining area to a large deck. The home also features a remodeled master bath with huge shower. The kitchen uses generous counter space design & meets the needs of both casual and enthusiastic cooks. Breathtaking sunsets are viewed while relaxing on the front porch, entertaining in the living room, or preparing dinner in the kitchen. This home is located in the highly-rated Jenks school district.
