This 19 Acres offers seclusion and so much space for outdoor activities! It sports an adorable home with updated features such as granite and tile showers, low maintenance exterior, a huge covered front porch and covered patio from which to enjoy the beauty of the Osage Hills and the abundance of wildlife that freely roam the property! The split floor plan has a primary with a nice size closet and private bath with walk-in, tiled shower. Secondary bedroom wing has the feel of a 2nd en suite. Or, Bed #3 can be a flex room used for office or additional closet space due to lots of built-ins and an additional walk-in closet. Outside sports, a 30 X 30 shop with concrete and a 12 x 12 Overhead door with 16 X 30 lean to. This gives space in which to store all your equipment for maintaining this gorgeous property and inside room for a garage and/or for toys to enjoy the additional property features of a stocked pond, pasture areas, and trails throughout. And for your safety, there's a storm cellar. Minutes to Skiatook Lake and its tributaries for boat ramps, swim beaches and camp grounds for additional outdoor recreation activities - And, several other area lakes are within 20 miles, including Birch Lake (11.3 miles) and Keystone Lake (17.7 miles). Easy access to in-town Skiatook or on into Owasso or Tulsa. This single family home located at 1429 County Road
