This well designed 4-bedroom home offers a functional and flexible layout with beautiful finishes throughout. The kitchen showcases white hutch-style built-ins, designer details, and opens to the main living areas highlighted by the stone fireplace, built-ins, & hand-scraped hardwood floors. The floor plan includes a spacious primary suite along with a secondary guest suite on the main level, providing versatile living options. A dedicated study, formal dining room, and upstairs playroom offer additional space for work, entertaining, or hobbies. Step outside to an impressive backyard retreat featuring a covered patio with a brick wood-burning fireplace, wired for surround sound - ideal for relaxing or hosting gatherings. The fully fenced yard and corner lot provide added privacy and usable outdoor space. Located in the amenity-rich Reserve at Dutcher's Crossing, this home is just a short golf cart ride from Bixby West Elementary, offering convenient access to community amenities.
