2 Bedrooms | 1 Bathroom | 1,242 Sqft

Perched atop the highest point in McIntosh County, this extraordinary 50.76-acre farmhouse estate offers unmatched privacy, breathtaking panoramic views, and unforgettable sunsets overlooking the Lake Eufaula area. Located just 3-4 miles from Porum Landing, this peaceful and secluded retreat is the perfect blend of rustic luxury, recreation, and investment potential. Originally built in 2003, completely rehabbed down to the studs in 2018, and rarely used since, the beautifully designed 1,248-square-foot pine log home feels exceptionally clean, well-maintained, and move-in ready. Constructed with 90%+/- steel frame, spray foam insulation, and metal roof for long-lasting durability, the fully furnished home features granite countertops, custom barn doors, stainless steel appliances, washer, dryer, refrigerator, and warm rustic finishes throughout. Covered front and back porches provide the ideal setting to relax and take in the stunning west-facing sunsets over the lake and rolling countryside. Ideal as a full-time residence, luxury getaway, or income-producing Airbnb, the property is fully fenced with barbed wire and includes two ponds, offering endless opportunities for horses, livestock, hunting, and outdoor recreation. An 8-camera hard-wired security system provides added security and peace of mind. The impressive 3,250+
