3 Bedrooms | 2 Bathrooms | 1,360 Sqft

Sitting on 5 +/- acres with livestock allowed, this 2015 modular home isn't trying to be fancy-it's trying to be free. Three bedrooms, two bathrooms, and a layout that keeps life simple and moving. The kind of place where muddy boots by the door make perfect sense and the coffee tastes better because you've got land to look out over. And speaking of views...step out back on a Friday night and you might just catch the glow of the stadium lights-close enough to keep up with the score without ever leaving home. It's small-town living at its best, where schools are just down the road and community still feels like something real. Whether you're starting a little homestead, bringing a few animals with you, or just craving elbow room and open sky, this place doesn't overpromise-it just quietly delivers.
