Experience a rare opportunity to own a private luxury estate on approximately 30 breathtaking acres. Located at 16771 S 253rd East Avenue, this architect-designed Santa Fe inspired home offers over 5,039 square feet (CH) of distinctive living space inside a gated community bordering a nature preserve. Designed with timeless character and resort-style living in mind, this fully stucco estate features 4 spacious bedrooms, 4 full bathrooms, 2 half baths, multiple living areas, and a game room spread across 3 levels. Warm architectural details, expansive spaces, and stunning views create a home unlike anything else currently available in the Coweta and Tulsa area luxury real estate market. There is no expense spared on this beautiful estate. The property is ideal for buyers searching for acreage homes near Tulsa, luxury homes with land in Coweta, or a private retreat with wildlife, mature scenery, and peaceful surroundings. Deer roam the property regularly, creating an unmatched connection to nature while still being conveniently located near and amenities. A major highlight is the oversized shop featuring 5 overhead doors plus 2 additional bays, offering incredible flexibility for car collectors, RV storage, recreational vehicles, workshop space, hobby enthusiasts, or business equipment storage.
