Welcome to 1975 Pleasant Ridge Court in the desirable Settler's Crossing community, where spacious living, thoughtful updates, and an incredible backyard come together to create the perfect place to call home. Nestled on a quiet cul-de-sac and located within the highly acclaimed Deer Creek School District, this inviting home offers comfort, flexibility, and room to grow. The expansive great room serves as the heart of the home, featuring a fireplace, wood flooring, and abundant space for gathering with friends. Whether hosting holiday celebrations or enjoying a quiet evening at home, this welcoming space is designed for making lasting memories. The kitchen is both functional and inviting, offering a pantry, breakfast bar, corner sink with picturesque views of the backyard, and a seamless connection to the dining area. Preparing meals is easy while staying connected to family and guests, making this layout ideal for everyday living and entertaining. A versatile family room with double glass doors and wood flooring offers endless possibilities. Use it as a second living area, media room, or a private home office with direct access to the backyard. The primary suite provides a peaceful retreat, featuring updated flooring, a garden tub, and two spacious closets that offer exceptional organization. Generously sized secondary bedrooms provide
