An extraordinary custom residence tucked away on a private cul-de-sac in gated Aberdeen Falls, bringing together distinctive architecture, exceptional craftsmanship, and effortless indoor-outdoor living. Timber beams from an Amish barn, intricate ironwork, natural stone, and curated finishes create warmth and character throughout. The grand travertine entry opens to a private courtyard and home office with vaulted ceilings, custom built-ins, and under-cabinet heating. Designed for gathering, the chef's kitchen features Wolf double ovens and six-burner gas range, bev fridge, Scotsman soft-ice maker, oversized island with prep sink, and instant hot water. A galley pantry, addl storage, formal dining room, and butler's bar with illuminated glass-front cabinetry add function. The living room features a cross-beamed vaulted ceiling, stone accent wall, and expansive windows overlooking the backyard retreat. The primary suite offers a fireplace and spa-inspired bath with expansive marble shower, multiple shower heads, soaking tub, and separate vanities. An exercise room, oversized laundry room, and second en suite bedroom complete the main level. Upstairs are two en suite bedrooms, game room, half bath, and conditioned attic ideal for a playroom, studio, flex space, or storage. Outdoor living centers around a resort-style saltwater pool with waterfall,
