Limited-Time Builder Incentive $5000! Introducing The David Plan; a masterfully designed home that blends contemporary architecture with modern conveniences creating a residence that is as functional as it is beautiful. From the charming craftsman-style exterior to the thoughtfully curated interior finishes, every detail has been designed to inspire. Step through the entry into a breathtaking living room where soaring ceilings and oversized picture windows fill the space with natural light. A sleek designer fireplace anchors the room, offering both warmth and sophistication while the open layout creates an effortless flow for both everyday living and entertaining. At the heart of the home, the chef-inspired kitchen offers everything you've been dreaming of; an oversized island with counter seating, designer tile backsplash, a generous walk-in pantry, and premium stainless steel appliances including a gas range. Overlooking both the Great Room and dining area, it's the perfect space to connect with family or host gatherings with ease. The private primary suite is a true retreat featuring a spa-like bath with dual vanities, a freestanding soaking tub, a walk-in shower, and an expansive closet. Designed with privacy in mind, the split-bedroom layout includes two large secondary bedrooms.
