6 Bedrooms | 4.5 Bathrooms | 4,466 Sqft

If this isn't a dream come true modern Farmhouse I don't know what is! This custom-built home sits majestically on a beautiful 4.35 acre wooded lot. After you've caught your breath as you travel down the winding drive you'll quickly realize how lovely and usable are the generously sized wrap around porches front and back. There's over 1,500 sqft of porches. That's just the beginning! There is so much architectural interest within the property; a 20' entry ceiling, Pella windows, and most significantly pastoral peaceful views of the property from every vantage point. This home has six bedrooms, the primary bedroom and bath which is spectacular is on one end. And three other bedrooms and bathrooms on the main floor at the other end all with 10' ceilings. Upstairs is a big living area (playroom, second office or media room) as well as the other roomy bedrooms, two bathrooms and big gorgeous windows to look out of and dream. Every home has a heart and this one is the large living area combined with an expansive open kitchen. If you enjoy entertaining and love cooking this one's for you! Every detail was thought through carefully when designing this kitchen. Lovely cabinets and lots of storage and a big farm sink overlooking the backyard. The quartz island is approximately 5'x10' with a salad sink and there is room for lots of stools and storage around the island,
